Art In Context: NYC
FINA 406B
This is a 2 unit course. Sophomores-Grad

This 2 unit intensive course will provide students with an exciting alternative to traditional classroom-based learning. Students will experience first-hand historical and contemporary aspects of the New York art world.

In late spring, students will travel to New York City for a week. They will be given an opportunity to meet and interact with leaders in the art world industry and to tour renowned and emerging galleries as well as world-class museums. During the semester and trip, students will maintain an e-journal and conclude the term with a presentation of their experience.

Students will visit the Metropolitan Museum of Art, MOMA, PS1, The Whitney Museum, The Frick Collection, The New Museum, The Brooklyn Museum, Dia Beacon, galleries in Chelsea, Midtown, Lower East side and Brooklyn, as well as artists’ studios.

Where in the World would you like to be in 2013?

New York City
Info Session October 18, 11-12 in the Student Lounge

May 19-27, 2013

Approximate Cost: $2,100
Included:
• Airfare
• Land & water transport
• Accommodations @ the Pod Hotel
• 2 lunches and 2 dinners
• Breakfast
• Excursions & Activities
• Experiential learning activities
• Museum entrance fees
• Health Insurance

Not Included:
• Course Tuition ($)
• Personal Expenses & some meals

Financial Aid available! otisaid@otis.edu

Application (Priority Enrollment)
NOVEMBER 1, 2012
(Rolling Admission)

Course taught by Professors
Linda Burnham &
Alex Slade

To obtain an Application contact:
Alex Slade
Fine Arts
aslade@otis.edu
310-846-2581

Or
Darren Grosch
Director of Intl’ Education
Provosts’ Office 215
dgrosch@otis.edu
310-665-6994