

Painting Minor

The Painting minor provides students the opportunity to explore the technical, formal, historical and theoretical approaches to painting through a combination of studio and art history courses. Explorations in oil, acrylic and mixed media as well as analysis of contemporary practices lead to students developing personal strategies in painting.

Eligibility

The Painting minor is open to students majoring in Communication Arts, Digital Media, Environmental Design, Fashion Design, Product Design and Toy Design. Students must be on track in their major and in good academic standing, with no more than 6 credits behind and a cumulative GPA of 2.0. Painting minors will only participate in the Senior Show of their home department, however depending on space availability they may utilize Fine Arts Senior Studios on a case-by-case basis with approval from the Department Chair.

Required Courses

PNTG204	Painting I	3.0	(fall only)
AHCS226	Contemporary Art Survey	3.0	(fall only)
FINA200 -or- FINA201	Sophomore Seminar I -or- Sophomore Seminar II	2.0	(fall or spring)
PNTG214	Painting II	3.0	(spring only)
	Painting electives	4.0	(any semester)

Total Credits

15.0

See Fine Arts and Liberal Arts and Sciences Departments for Course Descriptions.

Each enrolled student will receive an individual Academic Plan that outlines how this minor fits into their major.
